

Creating Opportunities for Smart Places through Living Labs.

A European Perspective.

01 October 2020, 09:30 – 11:10 BST (UK time)

REGISTER HERE:
<https://bit.ly/ldylivnnglabs>

AGENDA

Please join the session 10 minutes in advance to ensure any technical issues can be resolved before the event starts. N.B. All times stated below are UK times.

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 09:30 - 09:35 | WELCOME
Eve Roodhouse (Event moderator), Chief Officer for Economic Development, Leeds City Council |
| 09:35 - 09:45 | OPENING REMARKS
Anna-Lisa Boni, Secretary General, EUROCITIES |
| 09:45 - 09:55 | SETTING THE SCENE OF LIVING LABS
Zsuzsanna Bódi, Director, European Network of Living Labs
What is a living lab? How common are they across Europe? Director of ENOLL, Zsuzsanna Bódi will help answer these questions and provide some context to living labs in Europe. |
| 09:55 - 10:15 | LIVING LABS: A VIEW POINT FROM LEEDS
Panel Discussion
Partners from Leeds will discuss plans and aspirations for a living lab in the city and what makes a good partnership.
Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Stephen Blackburn, Data and Innovation Manager, Leeds City Council• David Aspin, Founder, Munroe K• Thomas Cooper, Sustainability Manager, University of Leeds |
| 10:15 - 10:45 | EXAMPLES OF LIVING LABS FROM EUROPE
Panel Discussion
Several European cities will present the living labs in their cities, looking at some of the key questions around funding, partnerships and scalability. There will also be a focus on how living labs can play a role in responding to the current health crisis.
Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nicola Farronato, Head of Innovation, Torino City Lab• TBC, City of Bilbao• Wim De Kinderen, International Project Manager, Brainport Eindhoven• Zsuzsanna Bódi, Director, European Network of Living Labs |
| 10:45-11:05 | Q&A DISCUSSION |
| 11:05-11:10 | CLOSING REMARKS |